

LIQUID WELLNESS

Seize the five benefits of drinking AOX natural antioxidant alkaline water for optimal wellbeing the natural way

As our body comprises of 70 per cent water, it is important to regulate the toxins and wastes from within. However, a poor diet, environmental factors such as pollution and prolonged stress produces a toxic stress response which affects the pH levels. Excess acid leads to fatigue, excess weight, poor digestion, aches and pains. Over an extended period, it can cause debilitating illnesses such as heart disease and diabetes.

Diabetic patient Madam Tan Guat Eng, 60 says, "I had diabetes for over 10 years, with a sugar level of 8.3. It worsened and I was required to have insulin shots. After searching for alternative solutions, I found AOX water. After drinking it for three days, my sugar level dropped to 7."

Here's how AOX water neutralises the stored toxins and gets rid of the unwanted acids to restore your body to a healthier state.

1. RECHARGES YOUR HEALTH

Through detoxification, it boosts your immunity and metabolism. AOX water is fortified with natural minerals such as calcium and magnesium and silica for stronger joints.

2. FOR RADIANT SKIN

Rich in antioxidants, it helps lighten pigmentation, clears acne and amps cell renewal for a brighter glow.

3. BOOSTS STRONGER IMMUNITY

Comprising of ionic minerals, it prevents free radicals from producing and damaging other cells. Plus, it contains more antioxidants than a glass of orange juice.

4. COMBATS AGEING

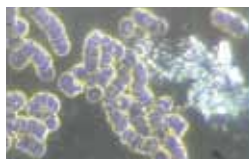

Packed with potassium and sodium to aid in the formation of healthy blood cells, it also helps to enhance skin elasticity.

5. SHEDS EXCESS WEIGHT

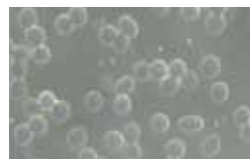

While improving blood circulation, it also speeds up your metabolism to burn fat effectively.
